HICKORY, N. C., Oct. 6.—James
Godwin, handsome young desperado who made love to a jailer's daughter and persuaded her to free him from the Lexington, N. C., jail, was shot and captured, near here, today.
Only a few minutes before Godwin's capture, his pal, William Wilson, voluntarily surrendered.

Face Murder Charges
Both Godwin and Wilson face murder charges in connection with Moss' murder at High Point. Although Godwin will be taken to High Point immediately, Wilson will be returned to the Lexington jail from which he and Godwin escaped last Monday.

Godwin threw down his gun and surrendered after being slightly wounded by officers who surrounded him in a barn about two and one-half miles from here.

He was rushed to a hospital here and given first aid treatment. He was then transferred to jail and will be removed later today to High Point, where he faces a charge of

Foresee Military Alliance
Between Nazis And Czechs

By PIERRE J. HUSS

International News Service Staff Correspondent

(Copyright, 1938)

BERLIN, Oct. 6.—An outright military alliance between Nazi Germany and what remains of Czechoslovakia was predicted in well-informed circles today as a sudden and unforeseen spurt of Czech-German cooperation facilitated work of the international commission mapping out new boundaries.

In contrast to the strained and protracted negotiations yesterday, when German insistence and pressure were needed for fulfillment of the Reich demands, the Czechoslovak delegate collaborated to the fullest possible extent today and won for his government several major concessions in return.

Despite material and economic problems still to be ironed out, the trend toward an eventual Czechoslovak military alliance to replace Prague's treaty with Soviet Russia appeared inevitable. It is an open secret that Reichsmarshal Adolf Hitler has already guaranteed Prague military aid against any aggression.

With Germany already permitted to occupy all Sudeten areas having German populations of 51 per cent or more by Oct. 10, which in itself went beyond the original terms of the Munich four-power agreement,
overnight developments found Czechoslovakia seemingly eager to cooperate with Berlin.

It became increasingly apparent that with the resignation of Eduard Benes as Czech president, his nation is falling swiftly within the German orbit and has virtually decided to throw in its lot with the Nazi regime.

(International News Service)

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 6.—
Police today sought to determine the reason for the apparent suicide of University of Michigan medical student, Sergeant Eric Martin, 21, found dead in his bedroom by his 19-year-old bride yesterday.

Police said Martin, son of wealthy
New York parents, apparently killed himself by putting his R. O. T. C.
rifle in his mouth and firing.

Heard Body Fall
Mrs. Merilla Martin said she heard no shot but ran to the second floor bedroom after she heard her husband's body fall to the floor.

She said:
"Martin's father paid all the bills.
His record at school was good and he had no quarrel. We've only been married since last May 12.
Everything seemed so lovely—we were planning for the time when Sergeant would complete school,

"He was of a rather nervous temperament and just before he went in there he said he was going to study anatomy. He was in good health and had everything to live for."

Mrs. Martin said funeral services for the youth will be delayed until her parents arrive from Dayton, O.,
and his parents arrive from New

Approval For Route Is Seen

Expect New Highway Route
Through City To Get
State O. K.

SECRETARY WILL MAKE INSPECTION

Unless all signs fail, the proposed by-pass route for No. 422, running from Jefferson street across to Mill over the old Rosena furnace site, up Grove street to Neal, out Neal to Taylor over the old Harmony tracks, and then to Butler avenue will soon be an accomplished fact, according to John B. Shaw, county superintendent of highways.

With Mayor Charles E. McGrath,
Mr. Shaw was in Harrisburg on Wednesday conferring with Secretary of Highways Roy E. Brown-miller on the matter. The meeting followed a telegram from Public

Works Commissioner Thomas Buchanan stating that the commission had considered the matter of making the by-pass a state highway and that this had been done.

Brownmiller Interested.

Secretary Brownmiller told Mr.
Shaw that he would come to New Castle on Saturday afternoon and would inspect the site personally.
He also said that there appeared to be many good reasons why this route should be handsurfaced and that he saw no reason why funds could not be allocated within the immediate future and construction started very soon.

The by-pass route for No. 422 will be a vast improvement in traffic conditions over the public square and Butler avenue. Truck traffic coming in from routes 422, 224 and 18, going east, can be by-passed down
Jefferson street and not on Washington street again until they cross at Butler avenue. Such a by-pass would have obviated the accident of this morning when a telephone pole was snapped off and cables and wires dropped down on Washington street near Chestnut.

Mr. Brownmiller expects to be in New Castle early Saturday afternoon for the inspection of the new route.

VICTORY TAKEN AS

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The peace policies of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, which impelled him to compromise at Munich lest another world war massacre men, women and children in the streets before armies could even reach the battlefield, were upheld by the

By a vote of 366 to 144, the house adopted a resolution "approving the policy of his majesty's government by which war was averted in the recent crisis and supports their efforts to secure lasting peace."

Laborites Lose

Just previously, the house had defeated 269 to 150, a Laborite amendment to the government resolution concerning the "sacrifice of Czechoslovakia under a threat of armed force."

Chamberlain's victory was in large measure a personal tribute. In his closing address to the house, the prime minister had told in an impassioned voice of his unceasing efforts to spare England and the world from war and displayed some biterness that while he was accused of leading Europe close to the brink of armageddon, he was given no credit for snatching it back.

Jailer's Daughter Is Now Behind Bars

Aided Escape Of Prisoners

Pleads Guilty To Having Liberated Two From Prison Cells

FUGITIVES BEGIN MURDER, ROBBERY

(International News Service)
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 6.—The small-town jailer's daughter who fell under the spell of a fast talking prisoner and swung open his cell door today began a three month term behind bars herself. A state wide search, meanwhile was pressed for the kid crook and his confederate who embarked on a reign of terror after dumping the girl and killed one man and robbed several others.

Still dazed by her sudden disillusionment, Lulu Kimmel, 20, pleaded guilty when arraigned last yesterday before Judge D. L. Packard. Her attorney characterized the girl as an "angel of mercy" and argued for leniency.

Jailer Resigns.
 The judge imposed a total term of seven months, but suspended all but three months of the time on the promise of her tearful parents that they would watch her future behavior. Jailer Kimmel resigned after the prisoners' escape.

Lulu, it was stated, had been loved by the blandishments of 20-year-old James Godwin, in custody as a suspected bandit. He promised to "go west" and lead an upright life if only he could be free. At length she gave him the pass key to the cell and both he and Bill Wilson, 21, made good their escape.

MODERATOR SPEAKS TO PRESBYTERIANS

 then, speaking of the church in general, added: "The business of the church is still the greatest business in the world—more money is invested in it and more men and women are identified in its work."

Mason Presides.
 Harry W. Mason, West Middlesex, who retired last night as president of the fellowship organization after serving several terms, introduced the moderator to the audience of men.

The audience quickly arose, applauded and instantly the hall echoed as the men, led by the First Presbyterian church quartet, joined in singing "Dixie." Dr. Welch is a southerner and is pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian church in Louisville.

Book Elected President.
 New officers of the laymen's organization were elected in a brief business meeting.

J. Audley Book, a member of the Mt. Hermon Presbyterian church and master of the Pennsylvania state grange, was the unanimous choice for president. While W. A. Sumner, Sharon, was chosen vice president and D. L. Fulkman, Pottsville, was chosen secretary-treasurer. They will serve two-year terms.

At the dinner the invocation was given by Rev. W. J. Holmes, pastor of Calvary church; greetings were extended by Dr. J. J. McIlvaine of the First Presbyterian and the pep singing was led by Charles Richards of the First Presbyterian quartet.

The invocation at the public service was given by Rev. Stewart W. Hume of the West Middlesex church, while Dr. S. A. Kirkbridge of New Wilmington introduced the moderator and Rev. E. A. Shumaker of the Westfield Presbyterian church gave the benediction. Dr. McIlvaine and Retiring President Mason of the fellowship group also took part.

Church Quartet Sings.
 The First Presbyterian quartet participated in both services. Members are Mrs. James A. Rugh, Mrs. Lillian Stambaugh, Charles Richards and Andrew Dillmore. Their accompanist was Miss Mary Louise Kirkpatrick. The pianist for the downstairs pep singing was E. E. Branstetter.

Dr. Welch this afternoon and tonight speaks in Grove City as a guest of the denomination's Butler Presbytery.

 London, Oct. 6.—Termination of the fratricidal Spanish civil war, with Premier Mussolini cast in the role of peace-maker—seemingly moved closer today as the British and Italian governments went forward with plans to bring peace to all quarters of Europe.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, it was revealed, has submitted a plan for ending the Spanish conflict to Mussolini, and it is expected to place it before the Fascist grand council today.

One of the chief points of the peace plan is withdrawal of 10,000 Italian troops from the insurgent Spanish forces. Upon completion of this "order" withdrawal, under the plan, Britain will announce formal recognition of Mussolini's conquest of Ethiopia, thus putting into effect the Anglo-Italian friendship pact.

We are headed toward a mild winter, according to Chief Dah-S-Noah, 96, of the Pennsylvania Seneca Indian Reservation. He bases his observation on a scarcity of black squirrels and an abundance of mountain tree berries.

This is the time when the public should make a serious study of the issues at stake in the coming election, and the qualifications of the candidates seeking office. But, of course, would be largely wasted effort for those who will not be eligible to vote. Do not forget that next Saturday is the last chance you will have to register.

Pa Newc was out in a field the other day that was covered with what looked like little white umbrellas, but he was too dumb to know whether they were mushrooms or roadstools. He has often heard the difference explained, but what good is an explanation when you're confronted with two kinds of fungi in the same field, and are not sure of yourself. Many a stomach has remained empty for the same reason.

Pa Newc noticed that today's rain brought down the leaves, loosened by frosts earlier in the week. In great numbers and motorists' heads were considerably increased. Wet leaves are as treacherous as ice and motorists are urged to use precaution in driving on days like today. If you think that you can't skid plenty on wet leaves just put your brakes on some time, and try it. Only don't do it when there is anything in the road. Street car men claim they would rather have ice on the rails than wet leaves.

NEWLYWEDS HONORED AT DUKES RESIDENCE

Delightful in every detail was the surprise shower given Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. William Dukes, on Park avenue, when the entertained members of the family informally to honor her daughter-in-law and son. Mr. and Mrs. William Dukes, nee Vivian McMillan, a bride and groom of recent date.

Upon the arrival of the guests, bingo claimed attention, causing much amusement, inasmuch as each of the participants received a novelty prize. At the close, however, special awards were presented to Mrs. Earl Dukes and Mrs. Robert Dukes for top scores.

When the evening was at its peak, Miss Margaret Hess, decked out in a new dress, knocked on the front door and delivered a telegram to the honored couple. In the message they were directed to look in the clothes press and, upon carrying out the instructions, both Mr. and Mrs. Dukes were taken by complete surprise when they found a huge basket stacked high with many beautifully wrapped packages.

Upon opening them they found lovely and useful gifts of a miscellaneous nature to use in their home. Making the occasion most complete, a tempting lunch was served at large tables, attractively appointed in the Mexican theme, which, too, was cleverly combined with the autumnal idea. Mrs. Dukes was aided with the menu by Mrs. Fred Lockart, Mrs. Mary Srinivasan, Mrs. Howard Wilson and Mrs. Wayne Phillips, the latter a daughter of the hostess, who resides at Oil City. Places marked for thirty-eight.

Special guests were Mrs. Thomas Kelley and Jean Glenn. Those from out-of-town included Mrs. Harry Edwards and W. P. Samuels, of Youngstown, O.; Mrs. Wayne Phillips and little daughter, Marcia, of Oil City; and Mr. and Mrs. William Sheasley, of Franklin, Pa.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

UNWISE TO ALLOW DOMINATION OF ONE CHILD

"DEAR DR. MYERS: I am the mother of two little girls 6 and 8 years. They have proved a great problem to me in this respect. The elder is the dominant character, is very bright and clever and wins her way with children or elders. She will talk her sister into spending her money for candy that she herself likes. Although the younger persists in keeping her own candy with the exception of a few pieces, the elder will eventually get at least half by talking to her. This she does with most of her friends and relatives. They all think she is just O.K.; even the principal and teacher do.

"Now how may I encourage the younger to hold her own? She is such a dear little thing. Before school age I never allowed them to mix much with other children. The younger is shy, the other just the opposite."

Answer: Like many other conscientious mothers, you thought you would protect your children morally by keeping them from playing with other children. You expected them to find each other as adequate playmates. They could not be; they are two years apart in ages. For years the elder has had practice at leading the younger, and the younger, at playing the submissive part. The thing now to do is to encourage each child to find playmates her own age, attracting them to your home. Try to get it out of your head that other children will seriously contaminate your own. So long as they play within the sight of adults, you need have little worry, while the moral gain should be immeasurable.

There will be many instances, such as that of the candy, when you should intervene and forbid the elder to impose on the younger. Strive harder to play up the successes of the younger and enlist the co-operation of your adult friends also to do so, and to lessen their attention to the elder one.

Let me beg parents of younger children not to keep them from normal play with the boys and girls of their age in the neighborhood. The moment your child is told he is too good to play with other children, he is seriously injured, probably beyond repair. Rightly, however, you will forbid your child to go into certain homes or places where he will not be properly supervised. But you will want him to share in the rough and tumble of the neighborhood playground. Let no one deceive himself to believe that two or three children in a family should be the sole playmates of one another.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SHORT INTRODUCTIONS, PLEASE.

From now on until the November election, the electorate of this Nation will be bombarded with speeches from the platform and over the radio, made by candidates for national and state offices.

When the candidate is a national figure and is about to address a large audience from the platform, he, of course, will be introduced by the "leading citizen" of the community, who is supporting his candidacy.

The "leading citizen" will probably take this opportunity to show off and his speech may be longer than the speech of the candidate. All of which reminds me of the time that William Jennings Bryan addressed a large meeting in a city of New York State which had given him a big vote when he ran the second time for the office of President of the United States. Notwithstanding his defeat in the State of New York, this city which was nominally Republican had gone Democratic and, incidentally, elected a staunch old German miller Mayor and the Mayor was chosen to introduce the "Great Commoner."

He was unaccustomed to introducing national persons and fully realizing his shortcomings, he memorized a carefully prepared speech. Upon this particular evening, the Mayor became somewhat befuddled and forgot his lines, but he was equal to the occasion and his introduction is one that might well be followed in spirit by those who will perform in that capacity this Fall. This is what he said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I have been asked to present to you William Jennings Bryan, who will speak. I had done so. He will now do so!"

Reader's Question Answered
Dear Miss Markel—I was invited to call at a friend's and explained at the time of the invitation that I could not stay after a certain time. She reminded me, shortly before that time, that I must go and explained to the other guests. Don't you think she should have waited for me to announce my departure?

Answer—Of course, she might have waited for you to say that it was time for you to leave. However, perhaps she was afraid you did not know the time and would appreciate a reminder. Her intentions were probably good, so do not judge her harshly.

Miss Markel will promptly mail personal answers to questions from any reader enclosing a self-addressed three-cent stamped envelope.

War Overshadows Haymaking Here

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—The world, including this country, hasn't much idea what has been going on recently excepting war stuff. The European situation has crowded every thing else off the front pages or smothered it out altogether.

Radio newscasts likewise have dealt with nothing much but the story of events centering around Czechoslovakia. To be sure, President Roosevelt, away over here, broke into the big headlines, but he did it by appealing to the overseas folks to settle their differences of opinion rationally, thus entangling himself to representation into the current news picture—a damned conspicuous representation. Any competent journalist hates to be forced to concentrate, day after day, on the same old yarn. But what choice has he? There isn't anything else. Even if there were, and he tried to put a little variety into his dope, nobody would pay a bit of attention to him.

Some Things Have Happened

As a matter of fact, a few things HAVE happened. Losing its way, a West Indian hurricane, which ought to have specialized on the Gulf coast, ravaged Louisiana and eastern New England, doing about a billion dollars' worth of damage and killing five or six hundred people. It did, indeed, get two or three days' first page attention, but it was subordinated. Why? I've known a small-bore mid-western tornado to get a better play than that hurricane did.

Incidentally, it was a hurricane which was accompanied by several bad floods in a section where the government has been doing a deal of so-called flood control work, at enormous expense. It proved ineffective. There's a howl to the purport that it WOULD have proved effective if it REALLY had been flood control work. The complaint is that it was NOT flood control work but power development. The complainants contend that this implies a terrible piece of government mismanagement. But can they get anyone to listen to them? Not a bit of it; all the general public gives any heed to is the European situation.

Then, there's a national railroad strike being voted, against a 15 per cent wage cut. President Roosevelt has declared a country-wide "emergency".

In normal times, I would guess that this would make the United States' hair curl. Now it's a yarn which editors relegate to the back pages. True, the strike may not eventuate; efforts are being made to forestall it. Still, with no world war threatening, think how the press would have been full of it!

As to wars, Spain's and the Orient's no longer are appreciably noticed—a slick or so of type on the papers' insides are all the consideration that their peace battles are accorded. Berlin, London, Paris, Rome, Moscow, Prague and Munich vibrate the streamers.

Gazenda—Did you ever see a company of women who were perfectly silent? Gazod—Yes, once when some one had asked which of those present was the oldest.

A bird was arrested for stealing $16,000 from a gasoline station in Los Angeles where he worked and it was found he was a woman instead of a man. "He" had been married four years and his wife did not know he was a woman. Use your own adjectives! Also sound the alarm!

The Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright 1938)

Relief A Real Issue

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6. IF THE Republicans and anti-New Deal Democrats had any real gumption, they would unite in making an issue this fall, in the next session of Congress and, if still unsuccessful, in the 1940 campaign, of getting the business of relief back in the hands of nonpartisan State committees.

IF THE country is to free itself of the New Deal, disease in time to recover health and sanity, what it needs is concentration upon a single simple issue which people can easily understand instead of a blanket indiscriminate covering of many points that the force is diluted and the effect is nil. The proposal to return relief to the local committees presents such an issue. By far, it is the best upon which to make the fight. Even if the Federal Government puts up ninety-five per cent of the money, that would be an immense gain in that it would end a situation which has become a great national shame.

THERE ARE many reasons for opposing the attack on the Administration's relief policy and urging the change. The first, of course, is that, under Mr. Harry Hopkins, the relief organization has become saturated with politics. Appointments are made on recommendation and approval of the politicians and the presence of non-partisan and non-political participation is completely impossible. Mr. Hopkins himself has become a recognized political factor. He is boosted for Governor in one State (New York), makes declarations in favor of the Administration Senatorial candidate in another (Iowa) and recently in a third (California) justifies Administration support of the absurd $30-every-Thursday pension scheme candidate by asserting that "it is only a local issue, after all."

NOR CAN the trick words last June of Mr. Hopkins and his aide, Mr. Aubrey Williams, which, in effect, they told people on relief how to cast their ballots, be forgotten. Characterizing these utterances, Mr. Hoover recently said "Ripped off all disguises and all intellectual dishonesty, the statements of these two men were a direction to the millions on relief and their wives and relatives how to vote." Wholly aside from all partisan incident, there is evidence enough to justify this issue over and over again. Politics in the WPA has been denounced by a Senate investigation committee controlled by Democrats; it has been exposed in Democratic newspapers supporting the President; it has been vehemently asserted by leading Democrats in Congress.

IN FACT, it has been so widely charged and so generally recognized and admitted that the periodical reassurances by Mr. Hopkins, his stage indignation over the charges and his blatant assertions of his non-political attitude have become worse than ridiculous—they are impudent and brazen. In anti-New Deal circles they create a steadily growing resentment; among the New Deal politicians there is admiration for the way in which "Hop" gets away with it. One of the things some assert he has "gotten away with" is the adding to the relief rolls during political campaigns and at a time when, according to the Administration's own figures, business is improving and unemployment decreasing. That singular fact, noted by Republicans more than once before a campaign, is anything more than a "coincidence" is hotly but not convincingly denied by Mr. Hopkins. At the present moment, though there certainly are signs of better business and Government agencies speak of less unemployment, more and more men are being put on the relief rolls, which now have reached their highest peak—over 3,100,000, and still going up. It is, perhaps, just a coincidence that an election will be held in five weeks.

TAKE IT all in all, this relief business, while probably the Administration's greatest political asset, is also its most indefensible activity. It is being conducted at so vast a cost as to threaten the stability of the Government, and in so muddled a way as to shock every man who abhors waste and believes that the last thing which politics should touch is the relief of human misery. Those who advocate the return of relief to nonpartisan local committees can urge it on three sound grounds—first, that it would remove relief from politics; second, that it would save a lot of money now wasted; third, that the better and distressed that the better the relief. Whether there will be a sufficient change in the complexion of the next Congress to bring about the vitally needed reform is doubtful, but two things are sure—first, a majority of thoughtful men in House and Senate know the present system is bad and the other would be better; second, if the change comes it will be against the will of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Hopkins, both of whom are irrevocably committed to the Federal administration of relief and each of whom has obvious reasons for resisting.

THE PLOUGH

Without it there would be no bread; No fields of golden grain; No city pavements hard to tread, No holy glass in stain; No dreams; no thoughts that mortals think Beyond the need of food and drink.

Without the plough mankind would be Fated always to roam, With every autumn doomed to flee To found another home; Doomed also as the years sped by In famine's agony to die.

'Tis strange that such a simple thing Should give the poets time to sing And clergymen endow; And set all sorts of genius free From hunger's grim necessity.

Yet art and craft and holy spire And things of brush and pen, With all that marks the soul's desire Among the works of men Might not be ours to boast of now But for the rough and rugged plough.

Two Guards At Dixmont Are Under Arrest

Arrest Two For Deaths Of Inmates Two Years Ago
Following Investigation

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—Two guards at Dixmont hospital for the insane, an Allegheny county institution, were under arrest today as the outgrowth of the deaths of two inmates several years ago.

The guards were Patrick Burke and Arthur Biles.

Burke was arrested last night on an information made by Edward Mason of Monongahela, a stepfather of William Atwater, who died at the hospital in December of 1935.

Biles was arrested on an information made by James Zellars, Negro, of Pittsburgh, a nephew of Horace Zellars, who died March 5, 1935.

A report at the morgue attributed his death to a blood clot in the lung which appeared while Zellars was recuperating from a broken leg suffered, according to hospital records, when he jumped three floors to the ground.

Henry L. Kheen, Jr., 35, a former guard at the Mayview city home and hospital, was arrested Tuesday and released on $2,500 bond on charges arising from the death of Paul Dragnac, 62, a patient, November 5, 1935.

An open verdict was returned in Dragnac's death by a coroner's jury which heard charges he was beaten by a guard. Kheen did not return to work following the inquest. He was named in an information filed by Dragnac's son Joseph.

Food Poisonings Investigated

In a general epidemic of poisoning, 76 persons of Hagerstown, Md., were made ill by arsenic in a food known as penhous, a mixture of cornmeal and pork pudding. Pictured, are some of the victims, the family of Ernest Snodderly. Most seriously affected was Mrs. Snodderly, shown in bed. Investigation showed enough poison to kill four hundred people had been mixed in the food.

Mark First Cinema Site

Mrs. John E. Sloan, daughter of the late Thomas A. Edison, unveiled a bronze plaque in New York City to commemorate the first public showing of a motion picture at the old Koster and Bial Music Hall on April 23, 1896. In the picture are (left to right) Nino Martini, opera star; Mrs. Sloan, and Will H. Hays, movie "czar." The spot on which the theatre stood is now the site of a department store on 24th Street between Herald Square and Seventh Avenue. (Central Press)

Crazed Man Is Held By Police After Slaying

Pursued His Estranged
Wife, But Killed Sister-
In-Law As She Plays
Heroine

TWO POLICEMEN SUFFER WOUNDS

(International News Service)
WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 6.—Allegedly attempting to make good a threat to "get" his estranged wife, Louis Rooney, 30, shot and killed his sister-in-law early today as the latter attempted to protect the intended victim, police said.

Then, fleeing in a running gun battle with police, Rooney wounded two patrolmen on the street outside the apartment before he himself was brought down by a bullet in his shoulder.

Pursued Wife.

Shortly after midnight, police said, Rooney trailed his wife, Mrs. Ruth Rooney, to the home of her sister, Mrs. Agnes McCauley, 25, broke down the door and began firing. Throwing her body across her sister, Mrs. McCauley fell with three bullets in the abdomen.

Flying Rooney then pursued his wife down a fire escape, detectives revealed, until two policemen, summoned by the woman's screams, cornered him in a blind alley.

Then, ignoring shots from the patrolmen and from police who arrived in a bandit car, the man made a wild dash from the alleyway. Joseph Berry, one of the patrolmen, was wounded in the knee while Patrolman Stanley Krzyk was seared on the cheek by a bullet as he sat at the wheel of the police car. Physicians said both Rooney and the two policemen would recover.

Crazy Drunk.

Taken to a hospital, Rooney told detectives he could not remember what had been going on.

"It was crazy drunk," police quoted him as saying. "I can't tell what happened at all."

Rooney and his wife were separated three years ago and police said they learned he had made threats against the woman after their estrangement.

'Find Out Facts' Girls Are Told

Girl Scout Movement Aims
To Promote Independent
Judgment

NATIONAL HEAD
GIVES HER VIEWS

Girl Scout and Girl Guide organizations in 30 countries have agreed that responsible youth organizations must increase their efforts to encourage independent thought and judgment among young people because only through such independence of thought can lasting strength of character be built.

Mrs. Paul Rittenhouse, one of five American women who attended the recent world conference of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts at Adelboden, Switzerland, has just returned to this country, bringing with her a report of the proceedings.

Common Problems Noted.
A striking feature of the conference, Mrs. Rittenhouse noted, was the fact that the same problems of spiritual unrest, emotional instability and economic insecurity were reported by almost every nation represented whether in Europe, Asia, Africa or North America.

"Girls growing up today have conflicting ideas and conflicting mass movements competing for their allegiance," Mrs. Rittenhouse said. "Girl scouting aims to give girls health, personal resources of culture and information, normal companionship and spiritual strength to look for facts and make their own decisions. Indeed 'Go and find out' might be the watchword of the Girl Scout of 1938. Think for yourself is another way of putting it."

"Delegates to the world conference agreed that girl scouting offers a tremendous opportunity to volunteer leaders who will help girls to develop as real people rather than as wooden yes-women," the national director added.

"The leader can share the thing she knows. What the leader does not know she should admit honestly so that she and the girls may 'go and find out' together. The real challenge of today is not to youth but to the adult leaders who dare not betray youth's trust in them."

State Libraries May Receive Aid

Federal Aid Program Is Recommended By President's Committee

By ARTHUR C. WINTER (Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—Pennsylvania's libraries would be improved in service and number under a Federal-aid program recommended this week by the president's advisory committee on education.

The committee has recommended that the federal government make grants to all states for library service improvements. These grants would start at a total of $2,000,000 for the fiscal year commencing next July 1 and would reach $6,000,000 in three years. They would be allotted to the various states on the basis of rural population.

Pennsylvania, under the plan, would receive a Federal grant of $112,323 for the first year, $224,646 the second year, and $336,969 each of the four succeeding years. This would give the state a grand total of $1,684,845 over the six-year period for the betterment of library facilities.

Blame Weather Conditions For Many 'Colds' Here

It is noticeable within the last couple of weeks, that quite a number of persons have been afflicted with colds, of a more or less annoying nature. Applications of handkerchiefs to the nose and eyes have been very much in evidence.

One of our local doctors states that the warm days and cool nights have something to do with it. Folks get overheated, "shed" their coats or wraps, and sometimes get cooled off too rapidly, or sit in some draft. If care were taken in this direction, much sickness could be averted.

Colds are also contagious. Being in groups with persons having colds, especially with folks who sneeze, the germs are scattered as it were by a spray. Members in the family suffering from colds should be carefully segregated to individual wash cloths and towels.

These colds often lead to dangerous illnesses, sometimes working down into the chest and lungs, and bringing on pneumonia.

ESCAPE much of the MISERY OF COLDS

Use specialized medication for nose and upper throat where most colds start

Helps Prevent Colds Developing—Don't wait until a miserable cold develops. At the very first warning sneeze, sniffle, or nasal irritation—put a few drops of Vicks Vapo-r-nol up each nostril immediately. Used in time, Vapo-r-nol helps to prevent the development of many colds.

Clears Stuffy Head, Too—Even when your head is all clogged up from a nagged cold, Vapo-r-nol brings comforting relief. It quickly clears away the clogging mucus, reduces swollen membranes, helps to keep the sinuses from being blocked by the cold—lets you breathe again.

Pitt Has Early American Room

BOYS DISCUSS AMERICAN LITERATURE

CO-EDS IN EARLY AMERICAN ROOM

Aiming to catch and hold a picture of Early American life, the University of Pittsburgh has installed an Early American classroom on the third floor of the Cathedral of Learning. The room is a recreation of the kitchen-living room of the pioneer home of the mid-seventeenth century. Old pine beams, a century or more old, support the ceiling. The beams are from old New England bridges and barns. The fireplace bricks are old, hand-made, irregular.

Panels are of smoothed pine. Wall space between the paneling is of hand-finished plaster. Furniture, exact replicas of Early American pieces, is of pine. Authentic also are the windows—panes diamond-shaped made of slightly cloudy glass. The window frames and hardware are of hand-wrought iron. The entrance door is a thick, substantial pine, studded on the outside with cone-head wrought iron nails.

N. Y. Tests Prove Women Can Lose FAT

Ask Your Doctor If It Isn't Good Way. Read EVERY Word

NEW YORK, N. Y.: A test conducted by a prominent N. Y. physician and a nationally known newspaper, women have found a safe, harmless, effective way to lose fat. If you'll only STICK TO IT and give it a fair trial.

In 40 days 25 women lost a total of 288 lbs. EVERY woman lost fat—the average loss per woman being 11½ lbs. The women lost fat and kept it off. And for proper functioning they took a little daily dose of Kruschen Salts. If you have the slightest doubt about this Plan just ask your own doctor about its safety and merit.

And this is important to know: Kruschen is not just one salt as some people may ignorantly believe. Rather, it's a blend of 6 active mineral salts (see on box) which, when dissolved in water, make a healthful mineral drink similar to the waters of famous European Spas where wealthy fair women have gone for years.

Try the Kruschen Plan: Just take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in hot water every morning for better functioning. Go light on the food and sweets—eat plenty of lean meats, fresh fruits and green vegetables. Plan to do this faithfully for 28 days and see if you don't lose fat and feel healthier and younger. A jar costs but a few cents and makes 5 gallons of a most highly efficient mineral brack water. 75¢. Richard's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

Registration Rush On At Court House

Only Two More Days Remain For Voters To Qualify For November Election

Registrations have been coming in fast at the registration bureau at the court house during the past few days. Yesterday there were 146 Republicans and 215 Democrats registered. 33 Republicans changed to Democrats and 13 Democrats to Republicans. 130 registered changes of address.

This morning the registration office was crowded, and several clerks were kept busy. Only two more days remain on which to register. This evening the registration bureau will be kept open until 9 o'clock. On Friday it will close at the usual time, but on Saturday, the last day, it will be open until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Registrations in the county districts have now all been completed, and the results tabulated. There are no figures available yet as to the exact registration by parties. After Saturday's registration this will be made up and the voting strength of the respective parties in the county will be known. Indications are that the registration will be the highest since the registration act was put in force.

Finds $371 Wallet; Returns It To Owner

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—"Sure, I could have used that money swell, with me figuring on getting married, but the only honest thing to do was to return it."

And thus, City Fireman Edward S. Yelton, 23, today explained why he returned a wallet containing $371 which he found while enroute home. Yelton traced the owner through a classified ad in a newspaper and returned it to him. Joseph T. Kaine, a musician, said he lost the wallet when he fell on the sidewalk.

Yelton turned the wallet over to Kaine instantly. The money undoubtedly would have been a great help to the young city fireman who is waiting to get on the department's "steady list" before taking the matrimonial plunge.

Object Lesson For Writers Of "Bug" Numbers

Negro Numbers Writer Refuses To Talk And Gets Six Months In Jail

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—Numbers writers today had a clearcut object lesson on what is in store for them if they fail to reveal the names of the higher-ups in the racket.

James Jackson, 32, was released on a year's probation after he gave Assistant District Attorney William J. O'Donnell the name of a "big shot" in the racket.

But Fount Oden, also a negro, was refused to talk when arraigned before Judge Frank P. Patterson.

Judge Patterson was working in complete harmony with District Attorney Andrew T. Park, who has ordered all numbers writers held on $10,000 bond when arrested. The unusually high bond, Park believes, will ferret out some of the higher-ups in the racket.

Truck Collides With Telephone Pole, On Street

Traffic Tied Up For Time On East Washington Street By Accident Today

Street car and automobile traffic were delayed and cables and wires came perilously close to falling to the street at 8:15 this morning when a freight truck running empty from New York to Alliance, O. hit a telephone pole near the corner of East Washington and Chestnut streets.

According to the story told City Detective John Young by the driver Theodore Slusser, of Alliance, Ohio, his trailer got caught in the street car tracks on the curve and skidded into the pole. The pole, one of the Bell telephone company's was snapped off at the base and pulled over from the curb. It fell over on to the Bell cable and wire lines, bringing them down several feet. In addition the pole carried the support wires for the street cars and these wires also came down.

The truck carrying Ohio license 6-AX-48 and also a Massachusetts license, is owned by the All Stars Freight Company with headquarters in Alliance, O. Slusser claimed he had left the top of Cresson Hill this morning shortly after four o'clock.

Police answered the call and posted men to flag traffic. A little later a Pennsylvania Power repair truck was on the job and still later a Bell telephone truck. Temporary repairs were made and traffic was resumed in about 45 minutes.

Grand Jury Probe Is Being Delayed

Efforts Of Earle Administration To "Stymie" Probe Apparently To Succeed

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Oct. 6.—Efforts of the Earle administration to "stymie" a grand jury investigation of graft charges against 14 of its Democratic leaders, including Gov. George H. Earle, appeared destined for success today.

The state supreme court, sitting in Pittsburgh yesterday, refused to disrupt court procedure to allow District Attorney Carl B. Shelley's plea to "speed up" the grand jury investigation by suspending its ordinary rule that case records be retained 10 days after a decision.

Meanwhile, the court prepared to adjourn its session today, to return on November 28 in Philadelphia. Should adjournment be made today, it became virtually impossible for the Dauphin county grand jury to proceed with its investigations until after elections because Shelley cannot go ahead until he gets the official file of the supreme court's decisions last Monday.

The court ruled at that time that two laws giving the legislature precedence over the grand jury in the investigation of the graft charges were unconstitutional, and disqualified Attorney General Guy K. Bard from superseding Shelley. At the same time it left it up to the Dauphin county court to decide on Shelley's eligibility.

Frank Shields Is Society's Newest Pugilistic Hero

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Cafe society's newest pugilistic hero is Frank Shields, socialite tennis player and Hollywood actor, who today holds a one-punch edge over James D. S. Coleman, one of Yale's gridiron men of a decade ago.

The cause of their fistic encounter in the foyer of the swanky El Morocco is vague but there is no disputing that Shields floored Coleman with a right to the eye. The ex-Yale gridder, now sporting a shine, did not strike a blow.

Before the fight, the pair had been part of an El Morocco crowd that included Doug Fairbank and his wife, the former La via Ashley, and the radio star Gracie Allen and George Burns in addition to several socialites.

CHEWTON

HOME-COMING SERVICES

There were large crowds of former members present Sunday at the resuming of annual home-coming services at the Christian church in Chewton, when the most successful services in a long time were held. There were more than 200 in the church school and the communion services, presided over by the elders of the church, were most impressive. Letters were read at the morning worship hour from the following former pastors: Rev. A. C. Young, Rev. Edgar Sattin, Rev. William Norman and Rev. Floyd Randall. Brief addresses were given by several former members.

A delightful service was held at two p. m. in the old church, when Charles P. Durbin, the pastor, presided and gave an impressive address. This was followed by services in the present church home, and a good sermon was preached by Rev. Thomas Shearer, pastor of the Central Christian church, New Castle. A crowded church heard this sermon.

At the evening hour of worship another large assembly heard the minister of the church preach on the "Unchanging Christ". Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hardie sang a beautiful duet.

All services were made richer by the singing of William McNutt and Bart Brownlow of East Liverpool, O. This day will long linger in the memory of all present by the renewal of old fellowships that have grown richer as the years have passed by.

CHEWTON NOTES

Police Line-Up Bulges Today As Result Of Vice And Crime Drive

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—The police line-up bulged today with an unusually large number of suspects, the first fruits of the concerted anti-crime war being waged by the newly reorganized police department.

Included in the catch were a gang of six youths charged with 20 chain-store, saloon and automobile hold-ups; a gang of four neighborhood hoodlums whose 17-year-old leader bragged he had directed 90 holdups and robberies in the Squirrel Hill residential section; and three Negro youths caught breaking into a store by Chief Inspector Mullen's special crime squad of 19 picked paroled men. Martin McKim, an anemic youth who said he was "too smart to bother with school," admitted being the brains of the gang captured in the East End. Police said they recovered much of the estimated $10,000 of loot taken by the gang because McKim's vaunted smartness was insufficient to discover a source where the goods could be disposed of with profit.

May Be Possible To Substitute For Traffic Officers

City Solicitor Reports To Council On Attitude Of State Official

Gilbert E. Long, assistant to the city solicitor, William G. Cobau, today reported to council in meeting in city hall that he does not believe the state department of highways would interfere were persons not qualified as regular police officers, appointed to perform traffic duty at schools here.

Long said he based his belief on the contents of a letter received from David L. German, special counsel for the department.
The letter from German said he sees no objection to the city using pensioned policemen or other people not members of the city police force in connection with the protection of school children crossing various streets at certain hours of the day.
The letter added that "of course, such people would not have the right to make arrests, unless, in the case of pensioned policemen, the city restores the authority which the policeman lost at the time they ceased to be active members of the police force."

The possibility of using persons other than police and pensioned policemen to guard children at school crossings had been mentioned in connection with demands that the children be guarded at all schools.
Mayor Charles E. McGrath stated some time ago that the increased demands for traffic service could not be met unless some persons were added to the force.

Long was instructed to delve into the matter, hence communications between German and he.

Annenberg Given Court Reprimand

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—M. L. Annenberg, publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, today was reprimanded by the state supreme court for publication of a copyrighted article last Monday morning accusingly foretelling the court's action a few hours later on the Earle grand jury laws.

After criticizing Annenberg who stood before the bar of the court, Chief Justice John W. Kepkurt announced:
"This record is certified to the district attorney of Philadelphia county for such criminal or other action as he may see fit to take."

The court issued no instructions for prosecution other than those which apparently leave the matter in the hands of the Philadelphia district attorney to proceed as his discretion dictates.
During questioning, Annenberg admitted that he had been consulted by a group of persons who had permitted publication of the story.

Wholesale Revision Of Farm Relief Law Is Being Demanded

By ARTHUR HACHTEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho, today swung to the support of Senator "Cotton Ed" Smith, South Carolina Democrat, in demands for wholesale revision of the farm relief law.

As discontent in the farm belt over low prices was reflected in an ugly temper on Capitol Hill, administration leaders frankly conceded President Roosevelt will have a rebellious congress on his hands next January.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, meanwhile, defended the farm program.

"I am with Senator Smith on this farm problem," Borah told reporters. "There must be substantial changes in the present law at the next session of congress. I don't know much about the trend of business in the cities, but I do know that the wheat and cotton farmers are suffering terribly."

Agitation was spreading among members of congress for substitution of the domestic allotment plan of farm aid for the existing soil conservation act, with its train of controls over what the farmer may plant or sell.

German Troops Parachute From Planes Into Sudeten Territory

Hitler Tests New Method

New Triumphal Tour Of Occupied Territory Started Today By Hitler

CLOSE INSPECTION IS BEING MADE

(International News Service) BERLIN, Oct. 6.—Chancellor Adolf Hitler left Berlin by special train today for another triumphal tour of the Sudetenland, where his troops began occupation of the fourth zone by parachuting to earth from army planes.

Hitler entered the Sudeten region between Oppach and Pagna at 10 a. m.

The fuhrer, who in a speech here last night confessed that he was "amazed" at having settled the German-Czech crisis without war, planned to give the military occupation of the fourth zone a close inspection.

To Test Methods.

This phase of the task of taking over German portions of the Sudeten area will be carried out today and tomorrow. The fourth occupation area embraces the Sudeten-Silesian territory to the north of Moravia.

The parachute maneuvers will be carried out by picked troops while other large units advance into the zone on foot and with the motorized equipment of ordinary ground warfare. The parachuting of troops to earth from army planes will serve as a test of this method of moving fighting forces.

Officials here stated that occupation of the Silesian area got under way on schedule at 8 a. m. from the direction of Landeck and Leobschütz.

Gas in Stomach or Bloating No Longer Annoy This Lady

Tells how Vendol relieved indigestion, acid stomach, lump in throat, palpitation, belching up food and other troubles due to bad case of constipation.

"I got almost unbelievable relief by taking Vendol after I had suffered many a day from troubles in my stomach," said Mrs. Charles Worpek, a popular young matron, with a host of friends in this city. "Recently, it seemed most everything went wrong, and I began to suffer with indigestion that turned my food to gas and sometimes almost doubled me with cramps. Nervousness that cut my sleep down terribly, spots before my eyes and bad taste in my mouth and with pains that stretched across the small of my back."

"Because I had tried so many other medicines which failed to give the desired relief, it is not surprising that I was doubtful about Vendol, but my like everyone around here was saying I did for them."

"But in two weeks, this grand medicine surely changed my mind. Now, after a few more weeks on it, my bowels are moving as they should, my digestion is equal to even the heaviest meal, nerves have quieted and I sleep, the spots before my eyes and the bad taste have vanished and the pain across my back never bothers me any more. Vendol is the best medicine ever, and I want to recommend it to both old and young people who are troubled like I used to be. I am sure Vendol will help everyone who will give it a chance."

If you need a good, safe, reliable medicine, get Vendol, without delay from your nearest druggist. It is highly recommended here by New Castle Drug, Eckerd's and People's.

To Stop Constipation Get at Its Cause!

If constipation's got you down so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All-Bran contains both "bulk" and the intestinal tonic, vitamin B. And it's not a drug, not a medicine! Made by Kellogg's Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

Help Is Asked In Locating Veteran

Postmaster Richard A. Steen has received a letter from Elmer L. Olson, acting commander of the Pennsylvania Soldiers Home at Erie in which he asks assistance in locating a veteran by the name of W. J. Cooper, who is supposed to be residing in New Castle.

The letter states that the veteran has made application for membership in the home, but neglected to give his New Castle address. If anybody knows where he is, notify Postmaster Steen or Thomas Edmunds at the county registration bureau.

Have You Read?

The stomach is a liar. It often complains when the fault is elsewhere.

Nausea, vomiting and rumblings accompany brain injuries.

Great hunger, diarrhea and indigestion follow mental diseases.

Abdominal pain and rigidity attend lung injuries or disease.

Heart trouble causes upper abdominal distress.

Pregnancy joins other mimics of abdominal disease.

Fright or shock or severe pain in other organs disturbs digestion.

They may cause constipation, nausea or vomiting.

The patient's description of symptoms may be very confusing.

The stomachache may be gnawing, boring, stabbing or burning.

The cause may be far removed from the stomach.

Junior Red Cross Enrollment Grows In Lawrence County

Ellwood City Has Forty-Five
Rooms Enrolled — Others
In County Sign Up

The Junior Red Cross enrollment in Lawrence County has been increased materially in the past week by the splendid enrollment in the Ellwood City schools who have sent in enrollment cards for forty-five rooms.

This is the largest enrollment in any one community and of course is due to the size of the system. Supt. J. Ellis Bell has co-operated most heartily with the Chapter and his efforts have been well repaid.

In the past week the following county schools have enrolled:

Ellwood City under Clarence W. Marshall; Wurtzburg, Anna M. Osbourne; Fairview, Estella Reynolds; Coal Ridge, Luella E. Scott; Linden Grove, Helen Forsythe; Kings Chapel, Elizabeth Kyle; Wayne Township, Doris W. Stoner; Union Township, Jennie Johnson.

This brings up the enrollment in the county to nearly two thousand school children.

New Castle High Ready For Battle At Washington

Expect Little Presidents To Be Tough Customers In Night Game Friday

NEW CASTLE SQUAD IS CRIPPLED UP

New Castle high school football team of Red Hurricanes is not looking for any soft touch this coming Friday night at Washington, Pa., under the madda lamps. On the other hand it shapes up as the toughest assignment the Bridesbaugh coached machine has faced so far this year.

Washington always looks good against New Castle. This year will be no exception. Last week the Little Presidents tied Unionville by eleven at Washington field 13 to 13, but really deserved a better break. They outplayed the Unions in every period.

Brush Up On Passes. The locals are brushing up on a razzle-dazzle forward passing attack for the game tomorrow night. So far New Castle has not unwrapped its bag of tricks. They may have to take the covers off tomorrow evening.

The New Castle team will go by bus to Washington and will start from here at 1 o'clock. In Washington the squad will be quartered at the George Washington hotel, where they will have a light meal prior to the game and a supper following the same. It is not likely that the squad will get out of Washington until possibly near midnight or after Saturday.

In charge of the New Castle team on the trip will be Head Coach Phil Bridesbaugh, Assistant Coaches Thomas, Klee and Cuba, Faculty Manager Norman Nelson and School Custodian Robert Stewart.

Several Players Injured. Coach Phil Bridesbaugh announced today that Steve Motzko, the regular right end would not be in the starting lineup Friday night. He is suffering a knee injury. Ralph Cennema is likely to get the call at the right end spot.

In practice this week Stanley Polkovich second string fullback broke a bone in his wrist and will be out for several weeks. Jimmy Temenski is out with a knee injury. This is the most crippled that New Castle has had for some time.

Floor Managers To Meet Tonight For Discussion

Possibility Of Fast Six Or Eight Team Independent City League Here

A meeting of all of the various managers of the fast independent and semi-pro basketball teams in New Castle, has been called by Franklin R. Orsini for 8 o'clock tonight at the Y. M. C. A.

The meeting will be in the form of a discussion of the coming floor season and whether or not the teams desire an organized league or wish to play independent ball.

The following teams are asked to send representative to the discussion tonight—Polish Falcons, Keystone A. C., Boosters, Gersons, N. Y., Mahoning A. C., K. Pulaskis, Union Civics and any others who will have good basketball teams this season.

No general organization will take place until around the first of December, it was announced by Mr. Orsini today.

Mahoning Ready For Ellwood High

Coach Austin Cowmeadow Names Probable Starting Lineup For Friday

Mahoning Junior High is going to try hard and average that 28 to 0 defeat plastered on them last year by the Ellwood City Junior High team Friday afternoon at the E. & A. field at 3:30 o'clock. Coach Austin Cowmeadow today named his probable starting lineup.

All week long the Railroaders have been hard at work on the practice field. They are developing a nice forward passing attack to use against the Ellwoodians. "Red" Nickum is ailing and his place at left half may be taken by his brother "Whitey" Nickum, both of these boys are brothers of the "Whitey" Nickum of New Castle high school fame of a few years back, and are anxious to follow in his foot-steps.

Strong Lineup. It is likely that Mahoning will take the field tomorrow with the following boys in the lineup: At left end will be Rainey, at left tackle will be found either Stewart or Lombardo. The center will be Cassella. At the guards will be Lambiasi, Conti or Coll. The right end will be Orlando.

In the backfield Ben Izzo will preside at quarter, with either "Red" Nickum or "Whitey" Nickum at the left half post, and with Mikovitz at right half job. The fullbacking will be taken care of by Simber "Thunderbolt" Izzo, the boy who looked so impressive in the game against Campbell Memorial.

The little world series between the Newark Bears of the International League, and Kansas City of the American Association, was deadlocked at two games each today. Kansas evened the count with a 9-6 victory at the midwest city last night.

Panthers Depend On Goldberg For Topping Of Dukes

Marshall Goldberg Is Again Headed For Stardom, Dukes Not Too Confident

MARSHALL GOLDBERG PIM Fullback

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 6.—In an offensive battle, which is what that Pitt-Duquesne game at the Pitt Stadium this Saturday is going to be, success awaits the team with the best backs, and backs are plentiful at Pitt.

The success of the Temple Owls in piercing both the Panther line and secondary makes safe the prediction that touchdowns are likely to come thick and fast on Saturday. Duquesne's pony backs, paced by Vince McKee, open-field wizard, are bound to find holes in the Panther line. But while they are running the Pitts aren't going to be standing still.

That machine-like starting backfield of Pitt is not expected to be held in check. Cassiano, Stebbins, and Goldberg, with the starting quiet, and Thurston, Natic, and Peace with the second outfit, should keep the crowd on its collective feet all afternoon.

Union-Shenango Set For Battle

County Class B Race Begins Friday Afternoon On Union Field

RECORD BREAKING CROWD IS EXPECTED

Union township has sole possession of the gridiron spotlight Friday afternoon when Shenango high battles Union in the opening of Lawrence county's annual Class B race. The kick-off time is 3 o'clock.

There is nothing in town that can match this sports attraction tomorrow afternoon. It's a battle that should provide a carload of thrills with a possible record-breaking crowd on the sidelines.

The aggregations represent two of the most bitter sports rivals in the county. They settle for nothing less than a victory. The school boys shoot the works and the coaches flash their brightest piece of strategy with no punches held back. These traditional tussles are tops in thrills. Why? A victory means the first step in coping the coveted Lawrence county Class B pennant. That means something to the lads who flaunt the colors of the two institutions.

As the battle nears Shenango township rules the favorite due to its showing during the past two weeks. After tumbling Evans City the East New Castle machine held a strong Freedom club to a 0-0 tie and then ran rough shod over Ziehopole 20-0. In its only showing Union checked the New Castle Reserves 12-12 last Friday afternoon.

The Shenango Wildcats boast a tower of strength in that front trench. Howard Currie, as fiery a grizzer as you'll find anywhere, ignites the spark that makes the line click. Leatham, Fallerino and the hard bucking Pitzer rank high as backfield men with J. Donley barking out the signals. Ringbloom, at center, and Solczek at right guard, are two of Union's outstanding linemen. Several and Kovak shape up well in the rear trench.

When the school boys lineup at 3 o'clock, one of the biggest crowds in years is expected to fill the gallery.

The probable starting lineup: Shenango—Union—Pulaski—L. E. Calazza, H. Currie, L. T. Allen, Fredericks, L. G. Swigart, McIlhott, C. C. Ringbloom, Denny, R. G. Snizek, N. Currie, R. T. Plonka, Toscano, R. E. Chikfull, J. Donley, Q. B. Severs, Latham, L. H. Kovak, Fallerino, R. H. Vinton, Pitzer, F. B. Dewberry.

Good Bouts In Prospect Monday

Mike Raffa To Fight Chicago Newspaper Champion In The Arena

GAYNOR, VIRGELLI IN SEMI-FINAL BOUT

Although last Monday night's fistic venture in The Arena was one of the most exciting staged in this city the fact remains that, next Monday night's calendar looks equally as inviting and indications are an even larger "house" will be had when the fighters answer the bell.

Mike Raffa, East Liverpool featherweight star, who fought good here has been matched to take on Harry Bonar, featherweight champion of the Chicago Tribune golden glove tournament. Bonar has been visiting in Eolansbee and has agreed to come here Monday night to sw. p blows with Raffa.

Babe Hutchinson, also of East Liverpool, who also has fought good fights here will take on Frankie Moran, this city. Moran lost to Smokey Robinson last Monday. However, in putting up a fight that found him swapping punches every minute he won a chance to box Hutchinson.

Should Hutchinson defeat Moran he will receive a chance to fight Smokey Robinson in the very near future. As a result this also augurs as a good bout as does the Jack Virgelli, Butler vs. Joe Gaynor. Both any college, 160 pound fight.

Oleski To Box. Gaynor has failed to stage a good fight and those who witnessed Virgelli's clash with Steve Moran know for a certainty they can expect a hectic night. Gaynor would like to beat Virgelli who is said to have one of the best left hands in the amateur 160 pound class. They will appear in the semi-final bout.

Johnny Morinelli hopes to even up with the smooth-going Eddie Oleski. Morinelli did not fight here last Monday. Oleski made a splendid showing when he boxed here and the 112 pounders should put up a fast fight.

Luke Smith, Follansbee, who lost to Schaeffer of W. & J. will take on Joe Biro, who lost to Mickie Rubin and Ray Hightower of Youngstown will take on George Peterson, of Youngstown.

Len Karabins who was given a technical kayo over Cusky Morini, when the latter sustained a cut above an eye will fight the rugged Chuck Arkeit of West Pittsburg. Arkeit is polishing up on his judgment of distance.

Halbert Brooks, the Moravia St. colored boy who is a professional dancer but an amateur slugger will get another chance. He will box Ted Kondako, of Youngstown. Brooks fought every minute he was in the ring in his first show.

The crowd in The Arena, an ideal setting for fistic promotions, was the largest yet for an indoor show here. Arrangements have been made to increase the seating capacity Monday night because a crowd of at least 1,200 fans is expected.

Allegheny Will Play Haverford

(Special To The News) MEADVILLE, Pa., Oct. 6.—Hoping to maintain a winning streak that dates from early in the 1937 season, the Allegheny College football Alligators play here Saturday afternoon to Haverford, from the proximity of Philadelphia town.

Just one year ago, in their second start of the season, the "Gators" took a 13-0 thumping at Haverford, then went on to win their remaining five games. The victory string was extended to six last Saturday as Allegheny measured out a hapless Otterbein team, 32-0.

Expect Crowd At Field Trials Here Saturday

Activities To Begin At New Castle Fair Ground At Nine A. M.

USE RINGNECKS IN BIRD DOG TRIALS

Plans are progressing for the Lawrence County Sportsman's Council field trials at the New Castle Fair grounds Saturday and with good weather it is anticipated that thousands of persons will watch the events which start at 9 a. m. and end about 6 p. m.

The various clubs which compose the council are in charge of different events. Committees have been named and it is likely that as soon as the results in any event are concluded the data will be made known at the building where prizes will be distributed.

Several years ago when field trials were held there was estimated at least 10,000 people, including men, women and youths, who witnessed the events. During the last year or more unsuitable weather plus counter attractions, kept down the crowds.

However, with everybody itching to get out in the country to watch the bird dog trials, coon chases, shooting at a rising bear and running deer, trap and skeet shooting, bait casting, archery, horseshoe pitching and other events, it is likely that one of the largest crowds in the history of the affair will attend.

According to plans the bird and rabbit dog trials will be in charge of Dave McCreary, of New Wilmington.

The shooting bird dog trial entries will close at 10:15 a. m. and the trials will get under way at 10:30 a. m.

The all-age shooting bird dog trial entries will close at 1 p. m. and the trials will start at 1:15 p. m. Twenty-five ringneck pheasants will be released for the trials.

The bird dog trial committee consists of Dave McCreary, C. O. Scott, P. Williams, F. W. Alker, J. Reis, W. J. Gregor, R. McConaghy, W. R. Waddington and D. Kline.

The beagle dog trials, 13 to 15 inch class trials, will start at 9 a. m. Tom O'Brien, M. O'Brien and E. McCormick are in charge of the beagles.

Special dog trials will be in charge of H. McCormick and G. Ward.

Grovers Prepare To Meet Hiram

Lot Of Hard Work Is Being Done This Week By Grove City College Footballers

GROVE CITY, Oct. 6.—Scurrying, and plenty of rough work under actual playing conditions, is the schedule this week for the Grove City College squad as it prepares to meet Hiram in the Homecoming Day football attraction here next Saturday. A sluggish offense was the principal defect in the opening game, when the Crimson attack bogged down and failed to overcome a Clarion lead gained when the visitors blocked a punt and scored in the second period.

Coach Jim Loveless is forced to risk injuries to his few veteran ball carriers because of the flagrant faults they displayed last Saturday. He had been going easy on the rough work all season, but with hard games coming up, it is necessary to drill the backs in quick starting and hard driving, even at the risk of injuries to key performers.

Rookies Look Good. Three newcomers stood out for the Grovers in Saturday's fray. Bud James, tall, hard-driving back from Erie, looked like the best ball-carrier on the field, and circled a regular half-back berth. Quarter-back Bob Elingsham's undersandy, Freshman Ken Wober of Grove City, handled his duties creditably, as did Bud Bovard, another Grove City freshman who replaced Center Andy Petach.

Coach Loveless will concentrate on his running and passing attack this week. Hiram College will bring one of Ohio's best backs in Bob Bloom, and the Grovers will have to manufacture a couple of touchdowns to match the threat of the Buckeye star, last year runner-up to Ohio's leading college scorer.

Titans To Play At California

Westminster Squad Drills For Game With Teachers On Saturday

SEVERAL PLAYERS ON INJURED LIST

(Special To The News) NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 6.—Hampered by poor defensive play and sluggish offensive blocking in their 6-0 loss to Bethany Saturday Coaches Washbaugh and Kelleher sent the Westminster Titans thru early week blocking and tackling drills in preparation for Saturday's tilt with California Teachers at California, Pa.

Several injuries received in the Bethany game will keep Valcenti and Edwards, regular backfield men, out of action for at least two weeks. Along with Valcenti's running, the lone bright spot in the Titan backfield play was Harold Pfau. Springfield sophomore's consistent ground gaining on wide end sweeps.

Noting out the Titans 6-2 at New Wilmington last year, California's Vulcans opened their 1938 season last Saturday with an 18-6 win over Edinboro Teachers.

With a limited number of backs available, Washbaugh must find a left halfback to play Valcenti's position for at least two weeks and Perry Black, Brentwood letterman, or Harry Shoup, Bessemer Kicking star, are likely choices for the Vulcan game.

Cubs Banking On Dean Today

Hartnett Will Gamble With Once Great Hurler; Gomez For Yanks Today

CUBS FIGHTING BACKS TO WALL

By LAWTON CARVER International News Service Sports Editor

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Faced by what seems to be inevitable defeat, old grey-haired Gabby Hartnett, the hapless warrior of them all, turned back the calendar today and staked everything on the head and heart pitching of Dizzy Dean in an effort to bring the Chicago Cubs up even with the New York Yankees in the world series after an opening game defeat that almost assured the Yanks of a record sequence of three straight championships.

Old Gabby, doing his catching for the embattled National league hopefuls despite a pair of split fingers and doing his managing as best he might, against baseball's most powerful attack, hadn't lost hope after yesterday's 3 to 1 defeat and, in fact, seemed just about as confident as ever.

Depends On Dean.

But he, a notorious fighter who never has known when he was licked was among the very few around here who thought the Cubs had any kind of a chance by this time, since their ace, their hope and, briefly, their everything, General Bill Lee of Louisiana, was stopped yesterday.

This was Dean called upon to go out there today with only the remnants of equipment that stamped him among the great fingers baseball has known, and in the second game of the classic oppose Lefty Vernon Gomez, the Yankee fire baller who will attempt to make it two straight and leave the Yanks with an almost insurmountable edge for the opener of three games or less at New York Saturday.

Dean has the heart of a pen full of lions and the head for pitching purposes of a whole gathering of Solomon's, but, unfortunately, his $200,000 right arm is more or less limp. It may be that he has one great game still left in his system at this stage of the season, and it may be that he will bring it out today.

Yankees Win Opening Game By Score 3 To 1

Red Ruffing Outpitches Big
Bill Lee To Give Yanks
Edge In Series

CROWD OF 44,242
ATTEND OPENER

BY LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Staff Writer

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 6.—The Chicago Cubs' hopes of halting the reign of the New York Yankees were given a sudden and perhaps fatal setback Wednesday when Charley (Red) Ruffing pitched the world champions to a 3 to 1 victory in the opening game of the world series before a capacity crowd of 44,242 Cub rooters.

The Yankee red head's victory, a steady nine-hit performance, was scored at the expense of solemn, overworked General Bill Lee, and with that the ace of the Cubs firing squad was beaten.

More pointedly, the man upon whom they had banked everything pitched his heart out and still couldn't win.

Gomez Hurls Today

The Yankees nipped Lee for eleven hits through the eight innings when he retired for a pinch hitter, and the champions then made one more off Jack Russell, who went in to hurl the last inning. Thus today the Yanks will send out Lefty Vernon Gomez against Dizzy Dean or Clay Bryant and probably will wind up the stay here with two straight to work on when they open at New York on Saturday.

State Prepares To Meet Bucknell

Several Sophomore Prospects

On State Team

(Special To The News)
STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 6.—There is no feeling of security among Penn State's football players as they prepare for the homecoming game with Bucknell this Saturday.

Despite their one-sided triumph over a Maryland team that was highly regarded, the Nittany Lions expect all kinds of trouble getting by a fine Bison eleven. It will be the 28th game between the two central Pennsylvania rivals.

Because of their fine play in the opening encounter, three or four sophomores are possible starters this Saturday, or at least will enter the game early. John G. Patrick, injured senior regular at the wing-back, will have a hard time displacing Craig White, his sophomore replacement.

Chuck Peters, sophomore quarterback, was also outstanding in the backfield. He averaged eight yards every time he carried the ball and caught one pass from Rollins good for 16. On the line, sophomores Wade Mori and Walt Knaiz turned in fine performances, the former recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL.

The first game of the World Series is over and much to the relief of many . . . and to the relief of many, shall we say, bets. It would be hard to say just how much masuma changes hand during a Series. If the government ever finds out . . . won't they have fun collecting a tax.

Here's a little question that came to our mind last night . . . when it was thundering and lightning . . . When we have a condition like that at this time of year, what weather condition does it predict? Some say a hard cold winter . . . old timers are we right?

The police are still watching for speeders . . . we think they have done very well and hope they continue the good work. Albert street is considered by some as a speed way . . . just why do they think they should speed on this street . . . maybe I should start by asking myself first. I don't know . . . but I do know this, it has been my privilege to drive up that street slowly and have cars pass when the street was filled with school children. How many accidents have occurred on that street this summer. Ask the police. People should have enough brains to drive slowly where children are at play.

Tomorrow night if the weather permits . . . folks from New Castle will travel to Washington, Pa., for a football game of football games. The boys are getting all keyed up and now that the head coach is back . . . they will keep keyed up. We are not much for saying how a game will turn out . . . but we hope New Castle boys will play a good clean game and the fans that follow . . . show your sportsmanship. Things will turn out for the best if all concerned behave.

We were reading other day where each car in the United States, carried on the average, three and one-half persons . . . usually the half person is the driver. To better your driving, why not attend the driving school. Learn all the answers.

Remember that election day is not far away . . . when you think about the candidates . . . weigh all their goods and wrongs . . . then vote according to your conscience . . . play square.

Pennsylvania Pays More Than Proportionate Share Of U. S. Taxes

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—Pennsylvania taxpayers paid considerably more than their proportionate share of Federal tax collections during the fiscal year of 1938, ended last June 30, according to figures made public today by Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Guy T. Helvering.

Mr. Helvering reported total revenue collections in Pennsylvania as $475,316,000 during the year. Of this, $210,075,329 represented income taxes and $167,986,193 miscellaneous taxes. The residue of $77,255,167 was payroll tax levied under the Social Security Act and railroad pension act.

Pennsylvania, according to Commissioner Helvering, had 7.84 per cent of the nation's population last year. At the same time, the state paid 8.4 per cent of all federal tax collections. This placed the state on record as paying more than a proportionate share from a population viewpoint.

Pays Large Share
Pennsylvania paid 8 per cent of all Federal income taxes, 8.2 per cent of the miscellaneous taxes, and 10.4 per cent of the payroll taxes.

Ohio, with only 5.19 per cent of the nation's population, paid 5.93 per cent of all Federal taxes. New York with 9.99 per cent of the population paid 11.99 per cent of the taxes. West Virginia, on the other hand, had 1.44 per cent of the population but paid only 0.43 per cent of the taxes.

Several other southern and western states paid less than their fair share which resulted in more than proportionate assessments against Pennsylvania and other industrial states. States paying less than their quota based on a population distribution included the following:

Per Cent Pop.	Per Cent Taxes
Alabama	2.23 .30
Arkansas	1.54 .14
Georgia	2.38 .60
Florida	1.29 .76
Idaho	1.38 .08
Iowa	1.37 .43
Kansas	1.44 .44
Louisiana	1.54 .81
Mississippi	1.56 .12
South Carolina	1.45 .21
South Dakota	.53 .03

York was chosen as the 1939 convention city. New Castle had sought the convention.

C. W. Roll, another Coraopolis man, was named district secretary and Richard H. Lamberton, Franklin, was chosen district treasurer.

Lion Escapes Cage; Fatally Claws Man

(International News Service)
WILLOWOOD, N. J., Oct. 6.—Authorities sought to determine today how a seven-year-old lion escaped from its cage to claw a man to death and throw this resort town into terror for two hours before it was shot to death.

The lion, one of a pair used in a boardwalk sideshow act during the summer, attacked and killed Thomas P. Saito, 37, a Japanese auctioneer from Philadelphia as he was about to enter his car. Then for more than two hours it eluded a posse of 40 policemen and firemen before finally being shot to death by a policeman, John Gares.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1938 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Dropping in at the opening of a new and swanky New York restaurant the other night, I had an experience which made me think I ought to have my head examined. A neatly tailored and personable diner, smoking a cigarette, suddenly became blurred in outline and emerged as a big, shaggy man, with a weeping willow moustache, a Prince Albert coat and a big cigar.

A girl in a simple evening gown, and a simple, modish coiffure, took on a train and flounces and the Gibson-girl hair rig, which I believe was achieved by the aid of a "rat."

This was happening all over the place. The orchestra had been playing "A Tisket-A-Tasket," and other such current musical trivia, and then, so help me, it shaded off into "Hearts and Flowers," "The Band Played On," and others from the deep crypt of mellow memories.

All at once, the whole thing clicked, just as I was about to ask the head waiter if there was an alienist in the house. This new restaurant is on the exact spot of the famous Rose Room of the old Waldorf.

Hey! There's something over there that looks like a story. Old John W. Gates having a drink with the Ellwood? Ellwood has been smacking Gates, and Gates has been taking a belt at Ellwood every once in a while. Ellwood said Gates leaved everything he knew peddling wire fence for Ellwood, and then double-crossed him by setting up for himself and taking the firm's customers. And here they are getting clubby again. Gates has been trying to rig some kind of a big steel company. Is Ellwood in on it? There's a good yarn if I can get that old walrus to talk.

The ghost of Private John Allen would come in right through the wall. Funny thing, the way the nabobs pal around with him. Maybe it's just the novelty of the thing—the only Confederate soldier who was a private. Private John Allen of Tupelo, Miss., huh, and what a teller of tales! It's those amazing yarns of his that put him over, of course. Let's see—oh, yes! Whiskey, that's his meal ticket—mixing with the blue bloods and stirring them up to make a fuss if they don't get that brand. He's always good for a stick or two of type—overplayed a lot though, lately—guess we'll have to toss him back in.

It's disconcerting the way these people kept on just oozing in and out. George C. Boldt—what a hotel manager is he!—seems to be getting excited about something.

"And what do you think of our Rose Room, Mrs. Astor?"

"Dreadful! Scarcely a person here one would care to receive."

There's Judge E. H. Gerry taking on Gates and Ellwood. I wonder what they are cooking up. The Judge must spend a fortune in champagne—there he goes, ordering a round for that big table in the corner, and I don't think he ever saw one of them before tonight. I wonder who that tall, solemn, undertakerish chap is—oh, yes, that's that Indians politician—Fairbanks. Isn't it—they say he might get a place on the national ticket. He might be good for a story. I wonder why such a mortuary chap comes so often to a place like this. Let's see—there's Diamond Jim Brady, he looks gaudier than ever tonight—lot of new rocks—and look at that platter of oysters—you couldn't take a running jump over it!

"Make mine a pousee cafe." The waiter said they weren't mixed any more. Then I tried for a stone fence, a horse's neck, a Mulligan, a whiskey daisy and a sherry flip, all with the same result and to the mounting alarm of the waiter. That brought me to.

The ghosts were gone, the music was swaying, the men were smooth-shaven, the women trim-rigged, and the hard dynamics of modern decoration had blasted away the fellow roccoco of the old Rose Room, and catch-as-catch-can drinkers had replaced the noble old sommeliers of yesterday.

LOSES RIGHT HAND IN HUNTING MISHAP
SHARON, Pa., Oct. 6.—James A. Custer, 64, a WPA worker, of R. D. 1, Masury, had his right hand shot off yesterday when his gun discharged as he rested on a tree stump while hunting.

He was rushed to Buhl hospital, where it was necessary to amputate the remainder of the hand several inches above the wrist.

Even in the Deep South some people prefer a laundry to a colored "washerwoman." A laundry's boy friend doesn't wear your clothes.
